

Static displays at the Royal International Air Tattoo

Koku-Jieitai KC-767 aerial refueling/transport unit made friendship call at Royal Air Force Fairford from July 13th to 16th, 2017, to conduct static displays at the Royal International Air Tattoo. The KC-767 unit also conducted unit-to-unit exchanges with the Royal Air Force and other participating air forces such as the Pakistan Air Force, the Qatar Emiri Air Force, the Royal Canadian Air Force, and the United States Air Force. In addition, the Koku-Jieitai personnel demonstrated Taiko drum performance and introduced Japanese culture to worldwide audiences.

Participants promoted mutual understanding and strengthened trusting relationship through interaction.
